A NOBLE ACT.

Brown's University in 1864 was worth $750,000, and had a library of thirty-six thousand volumes. At the last meeting of the Alumni, President SEARS announced that $500,000 were added to the endowment the past year. Five gentlemen of Providence each gave $20,000. Providence has but about one half the population of our cities, and not one half the wealth, and five of her citizens in one year have done many fold more for their University than all our people have done for theirs in half a century. What an unfavorable contrast. How does it show the comparative estimate placed on education by the people of the different cities. Here may be found the reason why we send our children to the East to be educated by the liberality of others. And here the reason why we are compelled to send to the same Providence for the cities' steam engines. An endowment is as essential to a good institution of learning as capital for a heavy manufacturer. We are not only behind the East but even the West in this respect.

The work, however, has been begun here, and an increasing interest and liberality will, we fully believe, be manifested. Before many years an University and Female College will be amply endowed. We have given our hundreds of thousands to endow institutions abroad, while our sons and daughters at home have been suffering. Where are the men who will give $100,000, or $20,000, or $10,000 or $5,000?

BACKSLIDING.

In August last, MR. POLLARD, the editor of the Richmond Examiner, was in Philadelphia attending the Conservative National Convention. After the adjournment of that body, a convivial re-union of journalistic gentlemen occurred, and MR. POLLARD made a speech, in which he protested the Southern people had "no desire to revive the issues decided by the arbitrament of the sword," and much more to the same effect. He produced a marked sensation upon his auditors and the public. On the 12th instant, in his journal, he said:

"We long ago gave over to the sons of the 'Pilgrim fathers' our interest in the flag, the Fourth of July and Yankee Doodle, and have never since felt any desire to re-assert our claims. Were the test oath abolished, and the doors of Congress opened to-morrow to Southern representation, no man of delicacy but would shrink from asking the best and purest in our land to mingle with that unclean crew of ravening howling fanatics. To participate councils of the nation, once an s now become a degradation."

THE Galveston (TEXAS,) Bulletin makes this sensible representation:

"The Republicans are willing the South should be represented by Union men. This is not satisfactory. It is demanded that those who still preach treason must be inducted into the places of honor and trust. This suicidal policy will not be adopted by the American people, who are determined that the leaders in the rebellion shall take the back seats, until they have given evidence of sincere repentance and change of heart."

THERE are indications that the conservatives have abandoned all hope of electing CLYMER, and are concentrating their energies on the close Congressional districts, with a view to defeating, if possible, some of the Republican nominees. This change will not avail them. The same ground-swell that wrought astonishing results in Maine, extends throughout Pennsylvania.

IN the Twenty-first Congressional District Mr. JOHN COVODE, the Republican candidate, seems to be ahead. The appearances indicate his election by a majority of three hundred. He is working up the district with great energy.

GEN. KIDDO's report to Gen. Howard of the condition of affairs in Texas is raising quite a commotion in that State. What particularly incensed the people was his allegation of numerous outrages upon the blacks.

IN the Twenty fourth Congressional District the prospects of MR. GEORGE V. LAWRENCE, the Republican candidate, are decidedly bright. He will be re-elected by at least fifteen hundred majority.

THE Butler meeting will be on the 24th inst., which is next Monday—and not the 26th, as we stated yesterday.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Ten thousand Fenians drill nightly in Buffalo.

—The Raleigh Progress has been publishing the initials of the young men who misbehave in the Raleigh churches.

—Fifty thousand copies of E. A. Pollard's "Lost Cause" are said to have been sold within one month after publication.

—The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Reformed Dutch Church at Fishkill was celebrated on Wednesday.

—The city election at Rising Sun, Indiana, on Tuesday, went Republican by a majority of seventy. The place hitherto has been largely democratic.

—Mobile has a population of 40,902, of which about 12,400 are colored. Of Confederate soldiers in the late war the city had 315 killed, 171 died and 352 disabled.

—Illegitimacy is increasing in Scotland to a frightful extent. For instance, in one parish of Aberdeenshire, out of fourteen births registered, seven are given as illegitimate.

—A Marseilles paper states that an inhabitant of that city has discovered a new motive power much more advantageous than steam and quite free from any danger of explosion.

—A negro named James Smith died of cholera in Memphis, last Sunday night, and forty-eight hours after, his deserted body was found by the city authorities, partially devoured by rats.

—A wedding was to take place at Nashville one evening last week, and bride, parson, and guests were ready, when it was announced that the groom was on a jury which was unable to agree, and had been locked up for the night.

—The Paris correspondent of the London Observer writes: "I hear that a great change is to be made this year in gentlemen's dress, and that the chimney-pot hat that has long held its place amid the fluctuations of fashion is at last to succumb to the demand of the age."

—The emigration of squirrels westward, which was noticed all over the State of Michigan a short time ago, is now being followed by a migration of bears. The same reason accounts for both—a scarcity of mast, as both of these animals depend alike on nuts, etc., for food. Bears are very numerous in the woods west of Bay City.

—A Nebraska City paper states that on August 24th that place was visited by an enormous swarm of minute insects that filled the air and appeared much like a snow storm. They were in two stratas—the upper one blown to the westward by a strong easterly wind, and the insects in the lower one moving about in every direction. Very few of them settled on the ground, and the entire swarm was finally blown away by the wind.

THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION.

General Wool Temporary Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON PERMANENT ORGANIZATION

McClellan, Johnson and Seward Cheered.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 17.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, in response to a call from those favorable to the policy of President Johnson and the action of the Philadelphia Convention of August 14th, met in this city to-day. A pavilion one hundred and fifty feet in length by sixty in breadth, had been erected in the Park for the use of the Convention, and at three o'clock the delegations entered, preceded by a band of music, and were seated, after which the crowd from the outside was admitted, and filled the tent to its utmost capacity.

Previous to the organization quite a spirited scene was witnessed, the delegations rising and cheering with all their might for successively the old flag, Generals Custar, Rosseau, Wool, and McClellan, the Constitution, the thirty-six States, and Andy Johnson, and after a brief breathing spell for wind, Generals Grant, Secretary Seward, Gen. Steedman and the Kentucky soldiers' army, and Governor Bradley, of Kentucky. As the cheering was called for and given in each case, there was a scene of wild enthusiasm, the delegates rising and waving their hats and shouting most vigorously.

By previous arrangement Gov. Bramlette nominated Maj. Gen. John E. Wool as the oldest Major-general in the United States, and probably in the world, as temporary President. Gen. Wool was received with loud cheers and addressed the Convention.

Prayer was offered by Captain W. C. Turner, formerly of the 49th Ohio Infantry.

On motion of General Lewis, of Kentucky, Captain J. H. M'Turbin, of Maine, and Major Duval English, of Kentucky, were elected Secretaries.

On motion of General Denver a Committee on Permanent Organization, consisting of one from each State, was appointed, as follows: Maine, General A. S. Daggett; Massachusetts, Colonel Elliot Kingsley; New York, General M. T. M'Mahon; New Jersey, General W. R. Penrose; Pennsylvania, Captain W. M'Clelland; Maryland, W. Purcell; District of Columbia, Captain J. Wharton; Virginia, General Wilson; Indiana, Colonel Frank Emerson, Wisconsin, A. O. Doolittle; Missouri, Major E. S. Farnsworth; Kansas, General O. A. Bassett; Nebraska, General Hill. H. Heath; Illinois, Surgeon W. A. Osgood; Kentucky, Lieutenant James A. Davison, Minnesota, General W. A. Gorman; California, General J. W. Denver; Tennessee, Major J. F. Carter; Louisiana, Col. E. M. Josi; New Mexico, Captain John Sherin; Michigan, General C. C. Loomis; Georgia, Major Henry S. Fitch.

On motion of Hon. L. D. Campbell, of Kentucky, the rules of the Congressional House of Representatives were adopted until otherwise ordered, with a provision that all resolutions pertaining to principle, be referred to the Committee on resolution and address without reading or debate.

On motion of James T. Brady, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Presidents of the different State delegations report to the President of the permanent organization, the names of all the members of their respective delegations, who are known to be dishonorably discharged the service of the United States, and that such persons so reported be not allowed to participate in the proceedings of the Convention.

General Custar announced that many of the delegations were not yet full; that members were coming on their way who ought to have an opportunity to participate in the business of the permanent organization, and he therefore offered a resolution to adjourn until ten o'clock to-morrow morning. Subsequently this resolution was withdrawn, and Mr. Campbell moved that General Thomas Ewing, Jr., of Kansas, now address the Convention. In response to calls from all sides General Ewing appeared upon the stand and was introduced by the President saying, "If you have any cheers to give you can give them." Loud cheers greeted this suggestion as General Ewing who proceeded to address the Convention at great length on all the points topics of the day.

Gen. Ewing elaborately argued the various constitutional questions at length, being greeted with great applause, and at the close loud cheers were given for the Constitution, which resolved to publish the speech in their proceedings.

Speaking for this evening by various speakers was announced, and the Convention adjourned, pursuant to the resolution offered by General Custar.

ANOTHER MASSACRE.

Radical Delegates Attacked by Reconstructed Rebels.

SEVERAL UNARMED MEN KILLED.

ST. LOUIS, September 17—The Democrat's Leavenworth special says: After the adjournment of the Platte County Radical Convention at Platte City, Missouri, on Saturday, a drunken Union soldier named Donnegan, made some noise on the street and flourished a pistol. Sheriff Ogden took his pistol away, and Donnegan left the crowd. He returned in short time afterward, a returned rebel, named Callahan, ex-officio Marshall, with a posse of ten men, demanded the surrender of Donnegan. A scuffle ensued and pistols were freely used, resulting in the death of three or four, and the wounding of eight or ten men.

A number of delegates had started home, hearing firing, returned to town, and were fired on by Callahan's party, four having their lights killed under them. Callahan fired twice at one delegate who was lying under his wounded horse, and he was fired at in return and killed.

The last account says several hundred armed rebels hold Platte City, and have driven all Union men out of town and swear they shall not return. There is great excitement existing here. Gov. Fletcher has been applied to for military force to put down the mob. All accounts agree that Donnegan was unarmed when Callahan's party attacked him.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

The Great Convention—Meeting of Committees Yesterday.

A joint meeting of the Resident Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention, and the County Executive Committee of the Boys in Blue, was held yesterday afternoon, pursuant to adjournment, in the Committee Room at City Hall, with Major General James S. Negley occupying the chair.

The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with, and the reports of the several committees called for by the chairman.

General A. L. Pearson, from the Committee on Railroads, reported progress. The report was accepted and the committee continued.

Sergeant J. H. Kerr, from the Committee on Badges, reported progress. A large number were already finished, and the whole number —2,500—would probably be ready for distribution to-day.

On motion of Captain Harper, it was resolved that the Committee on Badges be instructed to distribute the badges as soon as possible to the Boys in Blue on proper application being made.

Captain McConnell stated that he had information that the base ball clubs would, to a great extent, join the procession, dressed in their own uniform and wearing their own badges.

Sergt. Kerr remarked that the badges of the Boys in Blue, were designed to designate honorably discharged soldiers and sailors, and none others, and that civilians should not be permitted to join the organizations. A prolonged discussion followed, the members being very evenly divided as to the advisability of accepting or rejecting civilians as members of the District organizations. At length it was decided to leave the matter of membership to the option of each organization.

On motion of Col. Bayne, General Geo. S. Gallupe was made a member of both the Resident Committee, and County Executive Committee.

It was announced that Capt. Torrence, of the Committee on Decorations, had gone East to make arrangements for flags, and the Chairman was authorized to send him a letter empowering him to act for the Committee.

Capt. McConnell, from the Committee on Artillery, reported progress, and requested to be informed what guns were to be fired on the 25th inst. It was decided that a National salute should be fired at Meridian, and that, on the arrival of each Governor of a State, a Governor's salute (eleven guns,) should be fired.

Dr. Umbstaetter, from the Committee to procure tents for Headquarters, reported progress. Arrangements had been made with a party having in possession two large hospital tents, to erect them this evening, and to take them down for the sum of $21. The tents will be pitched in the Iron City Park to-day, and there the officers of the Committee will henceforth have their headquarters.

The Chairman stated that arrangements had been made to neatly equip the Anderson Cavalry, by the 26th inst.

On motion of General Pearson, it was resolved, inasmuch as several fire companies had expressed a desire to participate in the procession, to extend an invitation to them, as we were friendly to the purpose of the demonstration.

Messrs. John H. Hare, John H. Stewart, Joseph A. Burton, Jas. Scott and Robert Mackay, were appointed a Committee of Conference to make arrangements for the firemen's parade.

On motion of General Pearson, such brass ball clubs and other organizations as are friendly to the cause, were invited to participate in the procession.

The Secretary read the following letter from Paymaster Chas. Stewart, of Uniontown, which was referred to the proper Committee.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 15th, 1866.

Major Gen. J. S. Negley, President Boys in Blue.

MY DEAR SIR—I am requested to write and ask you what are the chances of accommodations for a rousing delegation of the Boys in Blue from this District, they paying their own fare to and from the city. We hope and trust that your mass meeting will loom the death knell of traitors, north and south.

With high regards I remain the "Banner County" of the State on that day.

Respectfully, CHAS. STEWART,
Paymaster U. S. Navy.

N. B.—Command my purse and person in any way in which I can serve you in this great meeting. C. S.

On motion of Capt. McCallum, Gen. Geo. S. Gallupe was added to the Committee on Programme.

Capt. Harper, from the Committee on Programme, submitted the following, which, after some discussion, was adopted, on motion of Col. Bayne:

CEREMONIES.

Reception by Reception Committee, at City Hall, Tuesday morning, Sept. 25th, at 9 o'clock.
Temporary Organization.
Appointment of Committee on Permanent Organization.
Adjourn and form procession, to move by the Shortest Route to Wigwam.
AT WIGWAM.
Assembly sounded by Drum Corps.
Convention opened by Temporary Chairman.
Prayer.
Music—Star Spangled Banner.
General Organization.
Business of Convention.
Benediction.
Tattoo by Drum Corps.

The Committee on Arrangements will be called to order with assembly by the Drum Corps, and prayer, and close with benediction, tattoo being sounded by the Drum Corps.

General Pearson wanted it distinctly understood by the delegates and the public, that the Wigwam would be no magnificent affair. It would be only a manner of shed, but the Committee would do the best they possibly could in the limited time allotted them.

Colonel Bayne proposed the following as the route for the procession on Tuesday evening, September 25th:

The Boys in Blue will form on Liberty street, the right resting on Water.

Civilians and all other organizations, on Liberty, the left resting on Water street.

The column will move at eight o'clock p. m. precisely, up Liberty street to Seventh, to Smithfield, along Smithfield to Fifth, down Fifth to Market, down Market to St. Clair, along St. Clair, over the bridge and up Federal street to Diamond Square, Allegheny, thence countermarching to Penn street, up Penn street to Wayne, up Wayne to Liberty, along Liberty to Grant, along Grant to Fifth, where the column will halt and break.

It was stated that the people of the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards had made arrangements to construct a triumphal arch over Penn avenue, Pittsburgh, and it was said the route would be laid out so as to include this portion of Pennsylvania avenue. After some discussion it was decided that this would make the line of march too long, and it was resolved to adopt Colonel Bayne's proposed route for Tuesday evening.

On motion of Captain Andless, a vote of thanks was tendered the people of the wards mentioned, and it was resolved that the grand procession on the 27th should be planned so as to include the 8th ward.

On motion Major General J. S. Negley was appointed Chief Marshal of the procession, and General Gallupe, Colonel Bayne and Barnes Assistant Marshals.

It was decided that the Chief Marshal should have six aids, who were appointed as follows: Colonel Wm. Sterrett Dickson, Capt. Kerr, Sergeant Wm. Shore, Sergeant E. Anvali, Corporal Heman Myers, Sergeant Robert D. Barker.

It was decided that the Chief and his assistants appear in uniform without side arms.

On motion of General Gallupe it was resolved that seventeen aids be appointed by the Chief Marshal and assigned to the Assistant Marshals. The following were appointed: Colonel D. M. Armor, Colonel D. W. Megraw, Colonel Wm. Wilson, Major Samuel Hogsgore, Major George M'Laughlin, Major W. H. Hope, Captain N. M. Smith, Captain R. G. Hare, Captain A. W. Bell, Captain L. Hugar, Captain John H. Stewart, Captain Wm. Sterrett, Captain T. S. Sloan, Sergeant S. C. Negley, Sergeant Charles Salvely, Sergeant A. Kradel.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at 11 o'clock this morning.

Liberal Donation.

It is a very pleasant thing to record such a fact as the one we are about to mention. We stated in the Gazette sometime ago that the teachers and scholars of the Providence Mission Sunday Schools were making a vigorous effort to erect a suitable and commodious hall in which to hold their meetings, and which will also serve as a mission church. With a little more aid from the friends of the cause the enterprise will soon be consummated. As an evidence of the interest felt in this laudable little enterprise, we have just been informed that the children of the Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church, of East Liberty, (Rev. Mr. Reynolds' flock) made up and sent to the building committee a donation of one hundred and forty-five dollars. How many more of our Sunday schools, equally able, will "go and do likewise?"

The following persons constitute the Executive Committee of the Borough: James Ferguson, Jesse Lloyd, Isaac Wilson, Thos. Carnahan, John Garbell, L. L. Connoway, Samuel Bryant, A. L. Jones, S. H. French, John Thompson, Jesse Lloyd, William Bryant, Columbus Patterson, N. Ballantine.

The meeting adjourned by giving three cheers for the Union Republican Party and the Boys in Blue for Governor of Pennsylvania.

Another Car Conductor in a Scrape.

Yesterday afternoon, as car No. 41, on the Ohio street and Troy Hill Passenger Railway, was crossing the St. Clair street bridge, its progress was impeded by a wagon standing on the track, and which had evidently met with some mishap. Murray Trimble, the conductor of the car, offered his assistance to get the wagon ready to go on, his car being then two minutes behind time. David Kane, proprietor of the wagon, responded to the offer by telling the conductor he was a d——d fool. Trimble insisted on Kane's getting down, while he tested the matter of muscle as well as foolishness. Kane, as is alleged, delayed as long as possible, and Trimble at length got to using very threatening language. Kane then complained before Mayor McCarthy, charging Trimble with surety of the peace. Officer Cupples went with a warrant for the arrest of Trimble, and overtook the car as it was going upon the bridge. Trimble refused to be arrested, but officer Cupples and Wrigley, soon secured his passage to the Mayor's office, where he gave bail for his appearance at Court, to answer the charge of surety of the peace.

The Unterrified of Westmoreland.

—The Fusionists announce a mass meeting at Greensburg on the 24 of next October

Allegheny County Agricultural Fair.

The Eleventh Anniversary of the Allegheny County Agricultural Fair is to commence today, and it promises to be—should the weather permit—the grandest affair, as well as Fair, that has ever taken place in our county. When we say that the Fair commences to-day, we do not wish it to be inferred that visitors will be admitted to-day, for such is not the case. As is the custom always, the first day is entirely devoted to exhibitors, and the arrangement of the different stalls, and there will be no departure from the rule at present.

We left for the grounds at rather an early hour yesterday morning, wishing to have a general survey before the bustle commenced, but we found that we were anticipated. Already a large number of workmen were busy in fitting up stalls, and in arranging goods. We felt that if before any doubts had been felt as to the enthusiasm that would be exhibited, those doubts should now vanish. The articles that were arriving were, to be sure, as a general thing, such as were least perishable, but the most encouraging sight was to see our merchants and manufacturers selecting their positions, and immediately going to work with a zeal that spoke volumes in favor of the success of the undertaking. Stoves, grates, ranges plumbers' goods, baths, sewing machine booths, lamps, chandeliers, glassware, wagons, carts, wheelbarrows, mowing machines, plows, cider-mills, photographs and paintings, flowers of different kinds, machinery, and so long a catalogue that it would require a column to enumerate them all. Today the finer class of goods, together with perishable articles, will be entered, and we shall see stocks of carpets, rugs, curtains, and the various paraphernalia of a well-ordered house; fruits and vegetables, jellies and preserves, and—but what is the use of attempting to go over the list. There will be horses, sheep, cows, mules, dogs, and every domestic animal that we have. Let but Old Sol show his benignant face, and such a display as Allegheny county has never yet seen will be opened to the astonished gaze. There—we'll knew we would miss the most interesting portion of the whole thing. Our good looking friend, General Negley, whispered in our ear just as we were leaving the ground that the ladies' organization of the "Boys in Blue" would make their headquarters on the ground during the Fair. We do not wish to accuse the General of running his jokes upon us, but we must confess that as we left his presence we were considerably mystified to know how the ladies could be "Boys in Blue," and on looking noticed in a report of their meeting that chairmen had been appointed, we were somewhat in doubt as to whether it should not have been—however, it might be a false print, and so if the Board of Directors will only have them on hand, we will say no more about it.

One of the first things which we noticed upon entering the grounds was the track. In all Fairs this is to a greater or less extent a matter of interest. A gentleman—we think his name is Mellon—of Turtle Creek, put the track in perfect order before night if he was allowed to. Of course he was allowed to, and he did put it in first rate order by means of himself, horses and carts. We only hope he should fail we think we can promise some excellent trotting.

As a matter of course the great event of the morning was throwing to the breeze the various star spangled banner. The Board of Directors were called together, and with others on the platform erected for the purpose, the tent in front of Floral Hall was surrounded by an enthusiastic crowd. It was decided that Judge Park should have the honor of hauling the flag to the mast head, amid tremendous cheering. The Judge was then called upon for a speech, and after endeavoring to excuse himself, he was compelled to deliver a brief address, which was received with applause. Coming with patriotism Captain Young was next called upon, and responded in a happy manner, concluding with the remark that the proud banner had been the emblem of success wherever its starry folds had been thrown to the breeze, so might it, as it floated from the top of the Floral Hall, be emblematical of the success of the Allegheny County Agricultural Fair. He would, before closing, give a sentiment, which was received with cheers, and responded to with three times three and a tiger.

"The star spangled banner, long may it wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave."

The cheering that went up in response to the sentiment might well have caused Rip Van Winkle to open his eyes in astonishment, and certainly was loud enough to have awakened the Seven Sleepers.

At this juncture, Mr. Hill proposed that the song of the star spangled banner should be sung, which he himself led off in the very best style. The vast throng joining in the chorus.

At the conclusion of the song, Hon. Augustus Boeder was called upon for a speech. Like the others, he declared that he was accustomed to deliver an address, but upon this occasion he was at a loss for words. He could not help being repeated. Mr. Boeder said that the greatest happiness was in being able to stand upon one's own hook. Trusting to no man, he proudly offers his hand, and said Three Rahs—the flag of his country. It had recently passed through a terrible conflict, and conflict of passions in which he is so remarkable. Last season his display was elegant; this season it will be more than elegant. It will be superb. It will be in readiness by this afternoon.

FLOWERS.

While in the temple dedicated to art, nature also claims attention. Flora has put on her garments, and the Floral Hall will be painted to the life. One fragrance to the scene. At the west end of the Hall, spread out in all their georgeousness are the floral trifles and knick-knacks of Pittsburgh. Among the collection we found exotics of nearly every description—Begonias, Caladiass, Dachlas, Marantas, Lycopodiums, Ferns, Roses, mosses and other plants. The arrangement of the stand with pine festooning occupied much time, but it will be consequently but a portion of the display was brought on the ground. To-day it will be completed.

HARDWARE.

There were being arranged a very handsome collection of stoves, grates, ranges, heaters, and the various paraphernalia of the kitchen, and among those that we were called upon to admire was an improved style of stove from the Rosedale Stove Works of L. Peterson, Jr., & Co. These gentlemen will have a display that will probably be unequalled by none other on the ground, although, as in most other bases, they had not completed the arrangement of their wares last night.

VEGETABLES.

Yesterday was rather early for the introduction of vegetables, but we noticed a very fine lot of potatoes catered by James Verner, Esq., known as the Oswayo potatoes. These potatoes are, as their name indicates, pearls, and our friends in the country will have to bestir themselves if they manage to find anything to beat them.

MISCELLANEOUS.

As a matter of course there was a great deal out of the chaos that existed to render any thing like a fair report of what was going on. This chaos was being rapidly transformed to order, and this evening will, we believe, verify our prediction that the present—provided the weather will admit—will be the largest and finest display ever held at a fair in this county. To-day, the carpets, sewing machines, vegetables, wax work, worsted, glass, and all other of the finer articles will be placed in their proper positions. We have been informed that a corps of forty policemen have been employed, who will be in attendance day and night. A large dancing platform is upon the grounds, and the inevitable whirligig—we believe that is what it is called—for the benefit of the children, will be in full way. A number of tents are already up. Eating houses were getting out their store of goods for the inner man. A few arrivals of stock had taken place, but as stock has to be fed, the owners were generally employed in getting in a stock of provender before bringing in their cattle. A building for the use of the Board of Managers has been erected near the main refreshment shop, and it is here that all parties having business with the Board will have to call. Every person who had any interest in the Fair were yesterday in the finest of spirits, the only anxiety being in regard to the weather.

Special Meeting of Councils.

A special meeting of both branches of the Council was held last evening in their respective chambers, City building.

SELECT COUNCIL.

There were present Messrs. Barclay, Coffin, Cousein, Gallaher, Herdman, Lowe, McLaughlin, McMillen, Morrow, Phillips, Rees, Shipton, Thompson, White, Wilson, and President McAuley.

President McAuley stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of electing a successor to Mr. M. F. Irwin, deceased, late Clerk of City Markets.

On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

On motion, the Clerk was authorized to announce to the Common branch that this body is ready to meet with them in joint session.

Council then adjourned to Common Council chamber.

JOINT SESSION.

President McAuley presiding. The following gentlemen were placed in nomination for the office of Clerk of City Markets:

Samuel Fleming, Robert Hill, E. D. Carnaghan.

The vote was taken viva voce, with the following result: Fleming, 18; Hill, 12; Carnaghan, 1.

Mr. Fleming was declared duly elected, having received the majority of all the votes cast. Joint session then adjourned.

SELECT COUNCIL RESUMED.

Mr. Thompson offered a petition asking for an ordinance to remove the nuisance created by itinerant hackmen occupying positions for long times by carts, drays and wagons on Liberty street, opposite the Post Office.

Mr. Phillips stated the same matter of complaint was experienced at the Monongahela House. The Ordinance asked for should be some general ordinance to guard all thoroughfares of the city.

After a running discussion the petition was referred to the Ordinance Committee, with instructions to inquire into the matter and report an ordinance to regulate it.

Mr. McMillen, from the Committee, introduced a resolution appointing James Trimble, in the place of James Blackmore, as a viewer in the opening of Wylie street. Adopted.

The question on concurrence with Common Council in the transfer of $15,000 from appropriation of city property, was stoutly resisted and opposed by Mr. Coffin, of the Sixth ward, and he felt anxious to have the members placed properly upon record, and called for the ayes and nays. He alone voted in the affirmative.

Council adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Present—All the members except Messrs. Ardary, Dickson, Ford, Killen, A. H. McEwen, McGeehan, Nesbit, Simpson, Tomlinson, Welsh and Wright.

The President read a communication from Controller Slagle, asking for the transfers of appropriation, as per resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand dollars be transferred from city property to No. 1, to be drawn upon by the Committee of Fire Alarm Telegraph Company; also, three thousand dollars from city property to Fire Engines and Hose.

Considerable discussion occurred upon the resolution off

THE COUP D'ETAT PLOT.

From the outgivings of the New York Times there is no reason to doubt that should the coming elections return a sufficient number of "Conservatives" to the next Congress to form, when combined with the entire delegations of the loyal States, a numerical quorum, the President's plan was to recognize the latter as the House of Representatives, and ignore the majority of the representatives of the loyal States. Thus, we should in that event, have had two Houses of Representatives—one recognized by the Senate, the other by the Executive, and a consequent conflict of supreme authority which could only be settled by revolution and another war. Fortunately this fearful peril need no longer be dreaded; for the numerical quorum of the House, after counting every rebel who is knocking at the door to get in, will still be largely on the side of the Republicans.

In the present House, as it was before the admission of Tennessee, parties stood—Republicans 145, Democrats 40. The members admitted from Tennessee were 2 Republicans, 5 Democrats or rebels, leaving parties divided 147 to 45. The delegations from the ten remaining rebel States are full and stand 1 Republican (from Virginia) and 49 "Conservative" or rebel, (which down there means the same thing.) Add all these to the present Congress, and parties will stand—Republicans 148, "Conservatives" 94—Republican majority, 54. From this we see what chance "My Policy" has of success by this dodge.

Everything so far indicates that this majority, instead of being diminished, will be considerably increased in the next Congress. The consequence will be, that the rebel States will, one by one, ratify the amendment and come in. They cannot and will not stay out much longer; and before the next meeting of Congress they will see that they can get back in no other way. Indeed, had it not been for ANDREW JOHNSON'S folly they would not have quarreled with the Congressional terms at all, but would have accepted them as eminently just and generous.

MR. BEECHER.

When he last lectured in Pittsburgh he assigned as one of the reasons why no rebel should be put to death, that enough blood had been shed already. Either then, no murderer should be punished with death, or he who sheds a small amount should suffer, while he who spills it in torrents should escape. The greater the crime the less the punishment. Consistency this.

No man has advocated decision, taking sides, in religion and politics, more warmly than Mr. BEECHER. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Now where is this seen in Mr. BEECHER. His course in the past few months and his Cleveland letter rank him with the JOHNSON rebel party. But he says in his second letter he is not there. Nominally he would be regarded as a Republican; influentially he is a JOHNSON man. All so feel, his oil and tried friends and his old and bitter enemies. This too is consistency.

Again; take no time to reconstruct the rebel States; admit them at once, or one after another, trusting to moral influence to correct existing evils. Let them come in to help make our laws and decide whether our national debt shall be paid or not, or compensation shall be given for slaves, and knowing well the treatment the poor negro has received for a century, and the increased bitterness of former masters towards them, regarding them as having aided the North, and as having been unjustly taken from them, knowing that they are beaten, butchered and hung up by hundreds, while the murderers invariably escape punishment; he would not wait to have any safeguards thrown around them; any protection secured to them. Time will work the cure here. Why not take a little time in the case of the inhuman monsters—the monsters of Andersonville? Does this accord with Mr. BEECHER'S former teachings? Here is mercy for the masters, but the grossest injustice and the deepest ingratitude to the loyal freedmen.

POLITICAL ARITHMETIC.

It is instructive to observe with what pertinacity the Democratic journals, in endeavoring to demonstrate that a majority of the population of the United States favor the President's Policy, ignore the plainest principles of arithmetic, and substitute a part for the whole. By this process it is easy for anybody, under any circumstances, to cypher up a majority favorable to his wishes. The New York World says:

"That the majority of the people stand ready to indorse it, is virtually confessed by the Radicals themselves. They persistently exclude the South from participation in national politics only because they are afraid the Southern whites and the Northern conservatives would immediately combine into an ascendant majority, and wrest from the Radicals their control of Congress. By their own acknowledgment the majority of the people would be against them, if the whole people were allowed to act."

This result is reached by omitting from the calculation upwards of four millions of the inhabitants of the Southern States. The excuse for this is, that the rebels, having the authority in those States, do not allow those four millions to vote. In some of the Southern States rebels are disfranchised by law, and the control falls to the other sort. But it would be manifestly absurd to exclude the rebels from any estimate of the whole people.

But it is not true the Radicals are oppressed by apprehensions as to the complexion of the next Congress. The result seems to be determined in advance, and in conformity to their desires.

GEN. GRANT'S POSITION.

One of the editors of the Chicago Republican recently had a conversation with General GRANT, which he details as follows:

"He went on to reiterate his determination not to be used by those who sought to commit him either for or against the President's policy, OR TO ATTACH ANY POLITICAL SIGNIFICANCE TO HIS PRESENCE ON THE PRESIDENT'S EXCURSION. He had also been much annoyed at the use which had been made of his name by JOHN HOGAN, WHO HAD PRESUMED TO STATE THAT GENERAL GRANT WAS POLITICALLY WITH THE PRESIDENT, AND ON ONE SIMILAR OCCASION BY MR. SEWARD. He felt that it was, above all things, desirable for officers of the army to avoid participation in ordinary political conflicts, except that it was their duty as citizens to support only men who could show a record of consistent loyalty. Whether a man's sentiments were Johnsonian or Republican, HE SAID HE FELT IT WAS AN INSULT TO ANY LOYAL MAN TO ASK HIM TO VOTE FOR ANY CANDIDATE WHO WAS NOT A LOYAL MAN IN 1861. In this connection he said that, without expressing any views of his own for or against the Johnson policy, he felt it to be a misfortune for Mr. Johnson that the advocates of his policy in the States through which we had just passed, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, had in some instances put upon their ticket men who in 1861 and 1862 HAD BEEN GUILTY OF KNOWN DISLOYALTY TO THE GOVERNMENT, because (and this was said in a very emphatic manner,) HE FELT THAT TO ASK MEN WHOSE SONS HAD SHED THEIR BLOOD FOR THE UNION TO VOTE FOR MEN WHO HAD BEEN DISLOYAL TO IT, WAS THE GREATEST INSULT THAT COULD BE OFFERED. Southern men he could make allowance for, and he could ride through the South and get out on a platform and shake hands in friendship with such men as Lee, Johnson or Forrest, because, though they had been almost educated into secession, they come now truly honest and loyal in their adherence to the Union, and were seeking to strengthen it. BUT HE DID NOT FEEL IN THAT WAY TOWARD NORTHERN MEN WHO HAD ONCE BEEN DISLOYAL, AND DESIRED TO ASSOCIATE WITH THEM NOR HAVE THEM FOR HIS FRIENDS. NO SUCH MEN SHOULD HAVE HIS SUPPORT, nor ought they to be supported by Mr. Johnson's friends throughout the Northern States. He particularly instanced, as a specimen of this objectionable class of men, Hiester Clymer, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, saying that to ask any soldier to vote for such a man, of at one time known disloyalty, against another who had served four years in the Union army, with credit to himself and benefit to his country, WAS A GROSS INSULT. If men desired to support Mr. Johnson's policy, let them, but at all events let them vote only for such men as were true to their country in 1861."

A CONTRAST.

On the 24 of March, 1801, President JOHNSON made a speech, in which he said:

When I President of the United States, I would do as Thomas Jefferson did in 1806, with Aaron Burr, who was charged with treason. I WOULD HAVE THEM ARRESTED AND TRIED FOR TREASON, AND IF CONVICTED, BY THE ETERNAL GOD, THEY SHOULD SUFFER THE PENALTY OF THE LAW AT THE HANDS OF THE EXECUTIONER. Sir, treason must be punished. Its enormity, and the extent and depth of the offense must be made known.

During his late visit to New York he made another speech, in which he exclaimed:

"Why should we distrust the Southern people, and say they are not to be believed? I have just called your attention to the Constitution under which THEY WERE DESTROUS TO LIVE, AND THAT WAS THE CONSTITUTION OF THEIR FATHERS. Having been defeated in bringing about separation, and having lost the institution of slavery, the great apple of discord, they now, in returning, TAKE UP THAT CONSTITUTION UNDER WHICH THEY ALWAYS LIVED, AND WHICH THEY ESTABLISHED FOR THEMSELVES EVEN, in a separate Government. Where, then, is the cause for distrust? I am one of those who take the Southern people WITH ALL THEIR HERESIES AND ERRORS, admitting that in rebellion they did wrong."

It is not difficult to determine who has changed.

A POINT WELL TAKEN.

The Army and Navy Journal calls attention to the fact that it has been the uniform rule with officers in the regular military and naval service of the United States to abstain from participation in the struggles of political parties, and that whenever exceptions have occurred to this rule, the persons furnishing them have been regarded with dissatisfaction and distrust by their associates. It then goes on to say:

"We have found no special occasion to grow enthusiastic over the action of Congress with reference to those interests with which we alone concern ourselves. But, whatever Mr. Johnson may say of that body, it is to be remembered that it is a Congress chosen by the same votes which placed him in the line of the succession to the Chief Magistracy. It is a Congress which has received the endorsement of his official approval of hundreds of its acts, and it is neither just nor seemly for him to descend from his position to mount the stump and pour forth abuse upon it. By the Fifth Article of War it is made an offence, to be visited with severe penalties, for "any officer or soldier" to use contemptuous or "disrespectful words against the Congress of the United States." How is the President, while presenting such an example, to enforce this provision as Commander-in-Chief? And how is he to make use of the same article to ensure that respect from the army for his own person which it enjoins and which discipline demands that it should maintain?"

THE New York Commercial has all along supported the President and his Policy. A change has come over it. It now says:

"When he reaches the White House again, let the President review his tour and its incidents. He must find reason in them for a change of course and for a departure from the policy to which he has so obstinately and perversely held. Mr. Johnson claims to be one of the people. If he thinks and acts as the people think and act, he will abandon the theory of reconstruction and the policy toward late rebels to which he has been so strongly wedded. He has never had so fair a chance to overcome the opposition of Congress and to introduce harmony into the councils of the nation."

—Instructions have been issued by the Treasury Department to all the Assistant Treasurers, and to several Collectors of Customs, requiring them to keep on hand packages of internal revenue stamps, which are to be sold to the public at the same rates of commission as are allowed by the Internal Revenue Bureau. The National Banks that are "designated depositories" are also required to keep internal revenue stamps for sale, in such amounts as the public may require, and at the rates of commission allowed by the Bureau. These rates are: upon $1000 worth and upwards, 5 per cent. discount; $100, 4 per cent.; $900, 3 per cent.; $50, 1 per cent.

—A young man named Charles Buckundertook to exhibit a Bramah bull whose keeper was sick, in a circus in St. Louis recently. The animal did not relish his familiarities, and suddenly turning upon him made a terrible thrust at him with his horns. Buck caught hold of his horns, and a policeman named Smith rushed into the arena and caught the bull by the tail. The animal, at this, turned his fury upon Smith, but the latter hung stoutly to the tail, and as the bull turned was swung violently around. Others now came to the rescue, and the bull was secured.

The new volume of the British Board of Trade Statistical Tables gives the following statement of the population of countries with more than 10,000,000 inhabitants, according to the most recent census: United Kingdom, 250 persons to the English square mile, upon an average; Italy, 225; France, 180; Prussia, 179; Austria, 155; Spain (and Balearic Islands,) 84; Turkey, 19; United States, 11; Russia, 9; Russia in Europe, 31; Brazil, 3. The population of the eight above named States of the old world exceeds 370,000,000.

—The Ohio Treasury has $845,604 87 on hand.

—A correspondent writes from Fort Abercombie, Dacotah Territory, under the impression that he has found Paradise. He sets forth the charms of that part of the world as follows: "No income tax, no internal revenue, no spies to see if you treat a friend on Sunday, no special police, no dog tax, no poll tax, school tax or bounty fund. And to end with, the Indians and half breeds can't tell one greenback from another, so all our ones are tens."

—The Boston papers announce the death of Thomas Farrington, the oldest of the Boston apothecaries. He died Saturday, at the age of eighty-five. At the time of his death he was one of the oldest graduates of the Latin school. He served his time with the late Redford Webster, and was noted through a long series of years as the "honest apothecary." For many years he was President of the Boston Pharmaceutical Society.

—There was a tournament at Huntsville, Ala., lately, at which one of the contestants appeared as the "Knight of the Gray Jacket." Passing down one of the streets attired for the tournay, he was halted by a detachment of United States soldiers and the buttons were cut off from his jacket of gray.

BE ON THE ALERT! DANGER IS AT HAND!—The shafts from a sickly season. The medical oracles prophesy evil in the future. They think pestilence is on the wing for America. Suppose this to be true, what is the best defence against it? REDOUBLED NERVOUS VIGOR! This is the only protection against PANIC, as well as against the PRINCIPLE OF INFECTION. Why do not those who predict the epidemic propose an adequate prevative? There is one, a tonic—Restore and strengthen the vigor of the nervous system, and the subtle elements of disease, whether they float into it on the winds from distant lands, or rise like vapor from the earth, will be harmless. Invigorate the universal fluid. This ONE PREVENTIVE, of which there is no substitute among the compounds extant, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Remember that it is a specific for all the complaints which lay the system open to the inroads of epidemics. It is a thorough alterative, arousing the vigor of constitutive powers, gives you appetite and restores your digestion. If you are afflicted with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, or any derangement, from the base of the brain, where it begins, to the extremities, where it terminates, if you are troubled with Constipation, Piles, Rheumatism, or the slightest attack of ague into harmony with the laws of health. It is to direct, an invigorant and alterative of the whole system. WARNING. Hold no intercourse with a person who is evacuating fungus. Be really bound hitherward, it behooves the PATIENT to procure a bottle of the only remedy which has ever invariably checked it, and by human means will promptly, by purging the system of its presence, stay the progress of the disease. sel8:d&w

Etna in the Field—Enthusiastic Meeting of "Boys in Blue."

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Boys in Blue was held on Saturday evening in Etna. There was a general turnout of the loyal masses, and a degree of great enthusiasm prevailed. The meeting was called to order by the election, as temporary President of R. H. Miller, Esq., and the appointment of Mr R. H. Jones as Secretary.

The President briefly set forth the object of the meeting to be the permanent organization of a branch of the "Boys in Blue," to be composed of the brave fellows who battled for our country in time of war, and who were now unwilling that their victories should prove fruitless. On motion, a committee of eight, consisting of the following gentlemen, was appointed on permanent organization: Charles Cook, 9th P. V's; A. G. Williams, 63d P. V's; A. G. Hunter, 5th Heavy Artillery P. V's; Geo. Gift, 9th P. V's; George Howenstein, 6th U. S. C.; Samuel Suters, 61st P. V.; and Neil McCowley, Hampton's Battery. The committee retired, and after short deliberation returned, reporting the following as nominations for permanent officers: President, Col. John A. Danks; Vice Presidents, Lieut. A. G. Williams and Joseph Frederick; Secretary, Sergeant R. H. Jones; Treasurer, Lieut. R. H. Miller.

The gentlemen nominated by the Committee were unanimously elected by the meeting, and the officers were invited to take their seats.

The following spirited resolution was adopted amid much enthusiasm:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and that our unremitting efforts will be used to place only such men as favor that policy into positions of honor and trust.

Colonel John A. Danks, Charles Flag and George Howenstein were appointed a committie to procure the necessary papers and documents for the complete formation of the Boys in Blue in Etna.

Colonel John A. Danks, Lieut. A. G. Williams and Lieut. R. H. Miller were appointed to represent as delegates the organization in the forthcoming Convention.

W. H. Hiltibidle, Geo. Howenstein and Chas. Cook were appointed as a Committee upon Music.

The meeting was characterized throughout with much unanimity of feeling, all recognizing the importance of presenting a united front to the enemy at the forthcoming election.

The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Geary, to meet again last evening.

A New Married Couple in Trouble.

Martin Hutchinson resides in Scott township, on a farm adjoining Leonard Groesbeck. A few months since a niece of Mr. Groesbeck named Hannah Mueller, came from Troy, New York, and found a home under the hospitable roof of her relative. After a time, and a comparatively short time, too, Martin ingratiated himself into the good graces of the susceptible young lady from Troy, and in the first warm gush of his affection he proposed marriage to her and it was accepted. Now Hannah is the sole heiress to all the lordly possessions of Leonard, and, as was expected, he was desirous of linking her fate with that of some person who would, by the alliance, link a few additional thousands to the legacy that would become Hannah's dower. But Martin had not the requisite funds and Leonard refused to let him take to his bosom the form of his more wealthy niece, and finally forbade Martin the house. This the lover construed into an insult, and he thereupon kicked Groesbeck down and beat him so severely that he had to be assisted home. That same evening on which Groesbeck had been beaten Hannah and Martin repaired to the office of Justice Miller and had the knot connubial so effectually tied as to preclude the possibility of Leonard ever breaking it. Groesbeck, intensified on revenge, appeared before the same magistrate on Saturday morning and made oath against Martin Hutchinson for aggravated assault and battery upon himself, his wife, for the larceny of a large quantity of wearing apparel, together with a hand box and a large leather trunk. The parties accused were arrested, but were released on giving bail for a hearing. Groesbeck has made known his determination of making a new will and cutting off Hannah with a farthing.

The Tombs as a Lodging House.

About eight o'clock on Sunday evening, a young and handsome girl calling herself Catherine Beekman, came to the Mayor's office, and asked permission to remain until the following morning. On being questioned as to why she did not find other and more comfortable lodgings, she answered that she had come from Bakerstown, and was on her way to her home in Franklin. She had walked eighteen miles during Sunday, and as was to be expected, when she reached the city, she was tired and foot-sore. Having funds sufficient to pay her expenses at a hotel, she made application for admittance to several, but none would admit her, and she was forced to seek the tombs to spend the night, or be in company with drunkards, vagrants and blackguards, which was well calculated, as it did, to shock her sensibilities.

We understand that the license granted to hotels, forces them to receive the traveller for a just compensation, and accommodate him or her with quarters for the night, no matter whether they come alone, in calico or jean, broadcloth or satin, in carriages or on foot. We hold that no person, especially a young maiden, should be forced from necessity to seek a refuge in the tombs, while we have so many licensed hotels and houses of public lodging. But this is a circumstance of almost daily occurrence, and to our own knowledge, landlords have refused to allow respectable people a room in their house from prejudice, or a matter of a perverted taste. These parties should be informed on and their licenses taken from them, as by this act, they forfeit all right to hold them.

Union Township Meeting.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Union Republicans of Union township, held at Frew's School House Saturday evening, Major William Frew presiding, and Matthew Simpson secretary, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Andrew Johnson, whom the loyal people elected Vice President, because he happened to be on the ticket with the martyred Lincoln, and whom the assassin Booth made accidental President, is now doing all in his power to give up to the Rebels that which they failed to gain by four years of unrighteous and bloody war against the best government on earth; therefore

Resolved, That it behooves every loyal man to do his whole duty, and see to it that the lives of half a million of our brothers have not been lost, and millions of treasure spent in vain; therefore

Resolved, That this meeting will now appoint a Vigilance Committee of twenty-one, whose duty it will be to see to it that every loyal voter in our township comes to the polls and votes on Tuesday, the 9th of October next.

The following gentlemen were appointed the said Township Vigilance Committee: F. C. Negley, William Marshall, Philip Stephens, Esq., David Harris, John Slacker, George Marshall, Thomas Welsh, George Gray, Matthew Simpson, Ralph White, George McCormick, Esq., Barnard Young, Daniel Dougherty, Thomas Stevenson, John Ramsey, Joseph Hartz, Jacob Handenshiel, William Fee, Esq., J. R. Holmes, Thomas Silk, Robert Carnahan, Christian Steel, John Graham, John Dougherty and William McDonald.

Book Notices.

OUT OF THE DEPTHS. The Story of a Woman's Life. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Bro. Pittsburgh: Sold by Henry Miner.

This is a story of sin and shame, which will interest many and terrify some. It is, however, written with a tender and delicate hand, and conceding it is well such a book should be written at all, the labor is well performed. It is the old cry of anguish sweeping up from the abyss of human degradation, and spiritual death. Miss Mulock sometimes says that throughout the new, and in many parts of the Old Testament, runs the clear doctrine that any sin, however great, being repented of and forsaken, is by God, and ought to be by man, altogether blotted out and done away with. It is the declared object of this volume to enforce this sentiment.

Union Rally at Temperanceville Great Enthusiasm.

A rally along the whole line of the Union Republicans of Temperanceville and vicinity, was held on Saturday evening last. N. Ballentine, Esq., presided, assisted by numerous Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Telling and effective speeches were made by Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., and Charles W. Robb, Esq., Rev. A. E. McIlvaine concluded with a few very appropriate remarks. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and the remarks of the speakers were interrupted from time to time with thunderous and long continued applause. There could not have been less than a thousand persons present, and we are assured the vote will largely increase itself over any ever yet polled. Our friends feel confident of carrying everything before them.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.—The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the United States, assembled in Baltimore yesterday morning. For the first time for some years there will be representatives in attendance from every State and Territory in the United States, and also from Canada. A full report of the condition of the Order on the continent of America will be made, and much important business, it is supposed, will be transacted.

Complimentary Benefit.—A complimentary benefit has been tendered the charming young actress, Miss Kate Estelle, by the Edwin Forrest Dramatic Association, which has been accepted by her, and will take place on Wednesday evening, 19th inst. A card in another column will explain the matter. See advertisement in Wednesday's Gazette for card of price, &c. We hope they will have a crowded house.

Grading.—Forbes street, in the Eighth ward, from Magee to Chestnut street, has been in such a condition for the last nine years as to preclude the possibility of any vehicles passing along it. It is now, however, being graded and raised to a level with the grade of Magee street, which is forty feet above its original level, and in a short time it will be opened for public travel.

Charged with Larceny.—Mary Jones appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday, and charged Mary Sarah Boyle or the larceny of a clothes prop and twenty yards of a hemp rope. The accused was arrested, but after a hearing she was discharged, the evidence being insufficient to warrant the magistrate in holding her for trial.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

Another War Threatened.

AUSTRIA'S BAD FAITH TO ITALY.

Order Withdrawing Prussian Troops Countermanded.

NEW YORK, September 17.—The following are the Tribune's specials referred to last night:

VIENNA, September 17.—We are on the verge of another war, which threatens to equal in extent that just ended. Austria shows bad faith in negotiating with Italy, and has made unreasonable demands, to which Italy will not submit. Austria has overcharged the debt of Venetia, and withholds Venetian property which she was bound to transfer.

BERLIN, September 14. Prussia has emphatically notified Austria that she will not suffer Italy, her ally, to be insulted and defranded, and that if Austria persists in her present course war must follow.

PRAGUE, Sept. 14.—The homeward march of Prussian troops has been peremptorily arrested and the demobilization of the entire army stopped.

DRESDEN, Sept. 14.—Everything looks like war. There is no reply from Austria to the notification of Prussia. It is given but a question of hours whether troops be not again put in motion for Vienna.

VIENNA, September 16.—Baron Worthen has arrived from Berlin, and resumed the duties of Prussian Ambassador at the court of Vienna.

BERLIN, September 16.—It is announced that Prussia will not allow the King of Saxony to take part in the formation of the North German Confederation.

Great Activity Among Fenians—Phil. Sheridan and the Fenian Army.

NEW YORK, September 17.—The Herald's New Orleans special says: Meetings are being held all over Mississippi and Louisiana in support of the Philadelphia platform. A very large one at Tekla last week adopted the resolutions of the Johnson Convention entire.

There is great activity among the Fenians here, and several companies are being equipped for some service, probably with the intention of again invading Canada.

I have the highest authority for stating that Sheridan has no idea of taking command of the Fenian army, neither have they the authority for the use of his name in that or any other connection.

Private advices from the sugar region state that a full half of the crop of sugar will be gathered, but there will be a great demand for seed cane, which will make the sugar crop small.

Steamboat Collision—Several Persons Injured.

NEW YORK, September 17.—A collision occurred yesterday morning near the Delaware street ferry, between the ferry-boat D. S. Gregory and the steamer George Washington. Mrs. Hans, residing on Hudson street, Jersey City, had a foot crushed and was otherwise injured; her little daughter was also badly bruised. Ann Craven, residing at Bayonne, had a leg fractured. Mr. Frazier and daughter were bruised about the limbs; they reside in Jersey City.

From the West Indies—Heavy Failures in Jamaica.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Kingston, (Jamaica,) Inquirer, in a review of the situation of affairs on the Island, says: At present, public matters are carried along like waifs by the torrent, and the community live under a cloud, scarcely daring to look the future in face. We have had some heavy failures, throwing confusion and embarrassment in commercial circles throughout the country. Altogether, things have indeed come to a crisis.

From Fortress Monroe—The Trial of Jeff. Davis.

NEW YORK, September 17.—A Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent says: Mr. Chandler, the United States District Attorney for the Fortress Monroe District, and the prosecutor of Jeff. Davis in his coming trial, will soon commence arranging his programme of the trial on behalf of the Government. The health of the prisoner is improving, and he is said to desire no Executive clemency beyond a fair and impartial trial.

Arrested for Murder

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—John J. Brady, the rebel Lieutenant who headed the party that seized the steamer Chesapeake, in December, 1863, while going from Portland to this city, has been arrested on a charge of murder committed at that time in aiding the escape. From documents found in the prisoner's possession, it appears that he joined an organization of a secret character in New Orleans last month. The organization is called the Knights of Arabia.

Latest from Mexico.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Herald's City of Mexico correspondence of August 25th, says that Maximilian is taking the Conservatives, to whom he gave the cold shoulder in the early day of his Mexican occupation, into his correspondence. Business was at a stand-still, owing to the impassability of the roads.

It is rumored that Marshal Bazaine is to leave Mexico in October, and that Maximilian will accompany him.

Health of Secretary Seward.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—Secretary Seward still lies in a critical condition, although the symptoms this morning appear to be favorable.

THE GERMAN QUESTION.

Text of the Treaty of Peace.

LOUIS NAPOLEON'S LETTER TO VICTOR EMANUEL

The Emperor and M. Drouyn L'Huys.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The following is the clause in the text of the treaty of peace between Prussia and Austria, signed at Prague on the 23d of August, the violation of which has tempted Prussia to cease her disbandment and draw the sword again:

The Emperor of Austria, on its part, consents to the union of the Lombardo Venetia Kingdom with the Kingdom of Italy, and the Emperor makes no other condition therefor than that the debts attached to the ceded territory shall be recognized in conformity with the treaty of Zurich.

The following is the text of Napoleon's letter to the King of Italy in relation to the cession of Venetia.

My brother, I have learned with pleasure that your Majesty has adhered to the armistice and the preliminaries of peace, signed by the king of Prussia and the Emperor of Austria. It is therefore, probable, that a new era of tranquility is about to open for Europe. Your Majesty knows that I have accepted the offer of Venetia in order to prevent her from any devastation, and to prevent any useless bloodshed. My intention has always been to restore her to herself, in order that Italy may be free from the Alps to the Adriatic. Venetia will soon be able to express her wishes by universal suffrage. Your Majesty will recognize that, in this circumstance, the action of France has again been executed in favor of Humanity and the Independence of the people. I renew the assurance of the sentiments of high esteem and sincere friendship with which I am

Your Majesty's
Good brother,
(Signed.) NAPOLEON.

St Cloud, August 11, 1866.

The Emperor Napoleon had addressed the following letter to the late Minister for Foreign Affairs:

My Dear M. Drouyn De L'Huys:—I deeply regret that circumstances oblige me to accept your resignation. In relinquishing, however, your co-operation, I am desirous to give you a proof of my esteem by naming you a member of the Privy Council. This new possession the advantages of not breaking off those relations which your enlightened and devotion to myself and my destiny rendered precious to me.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Return of the President—Secretary Seward's Health Improving—Appointments—Assistant Medical Director Appointed, &c

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The return of the President to Washington brings with it the usual attendance at the Executive mansion. To-day there was a large number of visitors, many of whom procured the desired interview. The members of the Cabinet called during the day for the transaction of business.

It is stated that the physical condition of Secretary Seward seems to be improving.

The Schutzen Fest societies called on the President to-day, who expressed his thanks to them for the compliment.

This afternoon the heads of the bureaus of the Treasury Department called formally upon the President to tender him their respects and congratulations upon his safe return from his western tour. Mr. Wilson, the assistant heads of the bureaus of the Treasury Department, welcomed the President home, and congratulated both him and themselves on the safe return to the scene of his official duties.

In reply President Johnson briefly returned his thanks for the visit and the sentiments expressed, and said he did not doubt the perseverance in the course which he pointed out by the Constitution would eventually effect a happy adjustment of the country's difficulties.

Julius A. Penn, of Clermont county, was today appointed Collector of Internal Revenue, and J. W. Warner, of Clinton, County Assessor of the Sixth District of Ohio, Messrs. Saunders and Daniel Murphy removed. M. O. Perkins has been appointed United States District Attorney for for the district of West Tennessee. He had served as a Union soldier during the war.

Commander L. A. Kimberly, formerly Lieutenant Commander and Executive officer of the United States steamer Colorado, has been detached from that vessel and ordered to return to the United States.

By a general order issued by Major General Hooker, commanding the Department of the Lakes, Brevet Major P. E. Pryor, Assistant Surgeon of the United States Army, has been assigned to duty as Assistant Medical Director of that department.

The New York Pulpit—The Sunday Sermons—Dr. Bellows Believes the People Politically "All Right."

NEW YORK, September 17.—Most of the distinguished clergymen appeared in their pulpits yesterday. Dr. Bellows, Dr. Cuyler and Dr. Boecher had an immense audience, but made no reference to political affairs. He deprecated strife, and urged reconciliation. Rev. Dr. Cuyler preached a sermon on temperance. In the course of the sermon Dr. Cuyler caused somewhat of a sensation by the terms with which he spoke of the drunkenness of this country. When the Christian, he said, sees as he does, drunkenness in high places it makes the whole American people hang their heads with shame.

Rev. Dr. Tyng discoursed on mercy and its administration. He announced that on future occasions he would apply the principles to the existing state of our national affairs.

Dr. Bellows said when he departed from the city on his western tour he was oppressed with doubts and fears. But, he continued, he says, haunted with the spectre of this fearful hypothesis—a horrid, desperate struggle between even numbers, for the control of our national politics, and the consequent breaking of the government itself. But he was now satisfied that the people would determine the question right.

From San Francisco—Gen. Halleck Honored—Acquittal of Capt. Nichols.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Major Gen. Halleck was elected President of the consolidated association of Mexican war veterans on Friday last. He accepted the proffered honor but declined making a speech, laconically saying that the rule of the United States military service required the dismissal of any officer who should make a speech exceeding three lines.

Capt. Michael, charged with maltreating the crew of the ship Reunion, was acquitted yesterday. Judge Hoffman, before whom the case was tried, regarded the evidence as too conflicting to warrant a detention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The steamer Orizabea, from Columbia river, brings $275,500 in treasure.

The Oregon Legislature organized on the 10th instant. T. R. Carnahus was elected President of the Senate and R. Chenowette Speaker of the House.

Many emigrants, disgusted with the mining prospects in Montana, are returning to Portland.

The next Panama steamer will carry a light treasure east.

The Cholera at New Orleans—Proposition by Texas to Lease Land for an Indian Reservation—Arrival of a Steamer at Key West.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 17.—The cholera still continues to rage on the plantations in the interior.

Accounts from the cotton region continue to be altogether unfavorable.

A proposition has been made in the Texas Legislature to cede a large tract of land, including the Pecos river country, to form an Indian Reservation. It meets with much opposition.

The steamer General Meade, from New York for New Orleans, previously reported ashore on Florida coast, arrived at Key West.

Ristori's Performances.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The sale of tickets for Ristori's performances commenced this morning. Chickering's piano forte rooms were crowded with people. Detachment of police kept excellent order and preserved a regular line, which extended all around the extensive warerooms and into Broadway. Speculators are already getting fifteen to twenty dollars for tickets.

Daring Attempt at Robbery.

NEW YORK, September 17.—Mr. Isha Cravan, a Wall street broker, was knocked down this morning in that street, by a ruffian, who attempted to rob him of a thin box containing cash and securities to a large amount. Mr. C., however, held fast to the box, until some one came to ascertain the difficulty, when the ruffian escaped.

Report Contradicted.

BUFFALO, Sept. 17.—A report is published in the Canadian papers that the Fenian editor proprietors of this city had subscribed one hundred thousand dollars to the Fenian fund. It is authoritatively denied by the editor themselves. Such a report is a slander, but it appears to have gained some credence elsewhere.

Death of Geo. Alfred Caldwell.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—Geo. Alfred Caldwell, ex-member of Congress and one of our most prominent lawyers, died suddenly this morning of rheumatism affecting the heart.

—The Boston Bulletin, of Saturday, contains the following in regard to copper stocks:

This has been a dull copper week. Our readers will do well, however, to remember that the copper stocks, which have been so roughly handled of late, have in many cases a certain solid intrinsic value that is no way affected by the movements of the various cliques and combinations. Investers who understand this care very little for the misfortunes or successes of the various rings, and buy and hold Copper Falls, Franklin, Hancock, Pewable, Pittsburgh, &c., as men buy and hold railroad and bank stocks.

The week has been quite an improvement in the market on Friday, Copper Falls closing firm at 49@47; Hancock at 24 bid; Bay State 10½; Hoosac 19@18, the latter closing at the inside bid. Small lots, and the prospects of an advance in these and other intrinsic stocks are fair.

Upon Mr. James Dupee's newly opened copper mine in Lake county, is reported that the yield of the Lake superior companies amounts to $13,465,000. Aggregate cash dividends, $3,720,000. Of the 107 companies on his list, 47 are Boston coasters, 24 estimate and sell in Philadelphia, 9 Pittsburgh, 1 Chicago. On a paid in capital of $120,000, the Pittsburgh and Boston Mining Co. has paid cash dividends amounting to $2,220,000; Minnesota capital, $160,000; dividends, $1,760,000; Quincy capital, $200,000; dividends, $500,000; Pewabic capital, $75,000; dividends, $1,000,000; Franklin capital, $120,000; dividends, $220,000; Copper Falls Capital, $150,000; dividends, $80,000.

—We hear that Mr. McCulloch proposes to add the funding into five-twenties of the second and third series of the seven-thirties. So far this privilege has been confined to the first series. The Secretary is to pay off the balance of the temporary loan. This is held by the banks in the form of four per cent certificates of indebtedness, and has been a source of considerable profit to them. They will greatly regret the withdrawal of these securities, which will force the return of a large amount of currency required to liquidate them from the national treasury to the vaults of the banks who, however, increase the available currency by the addition of the amount of clearing house certificates cancelled. $45,358,000. Mr. McCulloch will, as soon as practicable, fund the remainder of the 7-30's, the second, issue. Compound interest notes continuing in great demand. 7-30's of 1864 sell for 115; Dec. 1865, 112; May 1866, 108; Aug. 1865, 108½; Sept. 105, 108.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, September 17, 1866.

The produce markets were very dull to-day, the operations in produce generally being confined to retail orders, and prices have undergone no essential change.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and in very light supply; No. 1 spring is selling in small lots at $2.30 to 2.60. Oats scarce and firmer, sales of 1,000 bushels at 45c. Corn is steady, sale of 1 car from store at 82c. Corn is steady, sale of 1 car mixed at 75, and 1 small sales at 80 to 85. No movement in barley. Rye is in request, at 80c. Flour—There is a continued good local demand, and as the stock is very much reduced, prices remain unchanged. We quote superfine at $8.00@8.50; extra, $9.00@10.00; fancy, $12.50 for half Spring and half Winter; $12.50@13.50 for all Winter. Sale of 10 bbls "Red & Alden" at $12. Rye Flour coming at $9.50@10.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, sales of 10 hds sides at 17c to 17½ for Shoulders; 19 to 20 for Robbed Sides, and 20 to 20½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is in good demand, sales of 2,000 lbs at 21c for prime kettle. Dried beef is held firmly at $24.50.

APPLE—The market is again pretty well glutted with Apples, and aware of the opinion that, in many cases, those who have shipped here from a distance, find the cost of transportation and commission in a regular way, quote at $2.00@2.50 per bbl, as to quality.

SEED—Timothy is in good supply and very dull—with sales at $3.00. We are cognizant of a sale from first hands on Saturday at $2.50. Flaxseed sells readily on arrival at $3.00@3.10. Clover is in good demand at $7.50@8.00.

BUTTER—Is rather dull but unchanged. Prime to choice fresh Roll, of which there is but little to market, may be quoted at 30 to 35c. Inferior to Plain Packed.

EGGS—Firm with a good demand, and fresh packed sell readily at 21 to 22c.

CHEESE—Is firm, and unchanged; sales of Western Reserve at 16 to 17; Hamburg at 17 to 18, and Goshen at 20 to 21.

SWEET POTATOES—Coming in more freely and a shade lower; we now quote at $4 per barrel.

HAY—There is a fair demand for baled Hay, and we quote at $20.00@25 per ton, according to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, Sept. 17, 1866.

CRUDE—There was a little more activity in this article to-day, and as the supply is somewhat restricted, and the arrivals light, the market is a shade firmer. Sale of 2000 bbls at 15, 16@16½, 250 at 15¾, and 1000 at 15¾—all 15%. Quotations may be fairly given at 15 to 15½, bbls returned, and 20 to 20½ bbls included, and these may be regarded as the extreme rates in the market. The principal cause for this sudden and unexpected firmness is in consequence of the fact that the arrivals on the recent rise in the Allegheny have not been quite as large as had been expected, and buyers who have been holding back in expectation of heavy receipts and a material decline, are now compelled to purchase at market price. The advices from the east are by no means encouraging, but the stock here in first hands is very meagre.

REFINED—Bonded oil continues dull and weak, and compared with last week, prices are lower. We can report a sale of 1000 barrels for all this month, sellers option, at 41, delivered in Philadelphia, and five hundred, to be delivered in Philadelphia, in the month of October, sellers option, at same price. Late in the afternoon it was reported that September contracts could be purchased in Philadelphia at 45¾, and that offers cannot be responded as a very good omen for holders. For November and December, there is no inquiry, and the same is true of January. Free oil is quoted unchanged; small sales of standard brands at 58 to 60.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Baxter & Ellison	212	W. P. Logan
I. P. Coates	187	H. McKelvy
Harbaugh & Co	348	Jas. Wilkins
Reed & Co	225	Munnell & Co
R. & D. Coehran	457	Mawhinney & Co
Fisher & Bro	3200

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, September 15.—Fine wool is a drug, and cannot be sold unless at a heavy loss, except as a greater sacrifice than holders are at present willing to submit to. In fact, choice Pennsylvania and Ohio fleeces are not selling at all, and probably will not be in request, at paying prices, until a later period of the season—when the time arrives to commence the preparation of light spring goods. The transactions in fine wool are at present confined to cheap lots of Western, and even these are quite limited.

The receipts of wool are at present quite moderate, and below those of the corresponding period last year. In fact, the movements of wool from first hands must be considered as effectually checked, both coastwise and to the seaboard, or down in the country. What these contingencies, or the occurrence of either of them may be, commercial readers can judge as well as ourselves.

Sales of Domestic for the week foot up some 475,000 lbs, at about the previous rates, or 60c for fleece, and 35 to 45c for pulled.—Bulletin.

Boston Iron Market.

BOSTON, September 15.—The market for pig iron is rather quiet, though the best brands of both foreign and domestic are in small stock and held at full prices. Scotch pig is firm, dinner, and selling quite freely in New York, owing to relatively low rates. American No. 1 is in moderate demand, while the lower numbers are plenty and mostly neglected. Manufactured iron, including bar and sheet, is very dull, and prices a shade lower.

Scotch pig is firm, with sales of No. 1 in small lots from store, at $49@50 per ton, for the various standard brands. American is in moderate demand and shading, with sales in lots as wanted for the best, at $45@46 per ton, for the different numbers. Charcoal pig is selling at a range of $48@75 per ton, cash, as to brand. Bar iron is easier, with sales English and American at 4½@5c per lb, as to quality for common, and 5½@6½c for refined. Railroad iron is in fair demand at $58@55 per ton, gold, for English, and $70@80, currency, for American.

New York Seed Market.

NEW YORK, September 15.—There is to some inquiry for Timothy seed, and within a week about 150 bgs have been taken, mostly at 3c. now held at 12 to 12½. Timothy is dull and lower; small sales have been made at $3.50@4.00, and 4,000 bgs for export supply would be freely offered at $3.75, but no offers have received about that figure; we note sales of 60@70 bush at $3.75 down to $3.70. Linseed remains firm with sales of 1000 bags Calcutta, at Boston at $2.95@2.97½; 1000 do, to arrive there per Clytie, $2.95, in bond; and 3500 pockets, to arrive per Golconda, $3, duty paid, all gold.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Gold market was heavy towards the close of the day and fell off to 144⅞@145. Foreign Exchange is rather more steady, and prime bankers' bills are quoted at 107@108½. The Stock market was firm at the last open Board, and strong after the call.
